2015 HALLBERG RANCH PINOT NOIR

The SOMM Journal

95 Points

"This expression offers up a nose of cinnamon and cranberry with a hint of oregano and orange. The palate is rich and generously textured with a powerful voice that unleashes graphite and spiced herbs like paprika and sage. Alongside perpetually bright acidity, splashes of oak and cherry layer with licorice on the finish."

Wine Review Online

94 Points, Today's Featured Wine

"Singing acidity, rich integration of the nose elements and a long finish that keeps it all together."

PinotFile

93 Points: Outstanding

"Satin in texture with modest tannins and bright acidity on the succulent yet uplifting finish. Great harmony at play here."

JamesSuckling.com

92 Points: Outstanding

"An upbeat and concentrated pinot with bright and pure red-cherry aromas and flavors. The palate has crunchy, assertively crisp tannins and a neatly resolved finish. Drink or hold."

Wine Enthusiast

90 Points: Excellent; highly recommended

"Velvety on the palate, it features voluptuous flavors of lavender, orange, cherry and strawberry around a backbone of distinctive acidity."
